1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this company vehicle policy is to establish clear guidelines, rules, and expectations for the use, operation, and maintenance of company vehicles. This policy serves to ensure the safe, legal, and efficient use of company vehicles while also safeguarding company assets, promoting employee safety, and minimizing risks and liabilities associated with vehicle operations. Additionally, the policy aims to outline procedures for accident reporting, traffic violations, vehicle maintenance, and other relevant aspects to maintain compliance with regulatory requirements and uphold the company's standards and values.

2. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

This policy is applicable to all employees and consultants within the organization and any groups covered as per relevant labour legislation, regardless of employment agreement or rank. There are no exclusions.

3. POLICY

3.1. EMPLOYEES WHO MAY BE ASSIGNED A COMPANY VEHICLE

3.1.1. Employees who are eligible for assignment of a company vehicle are categorized into three (3) groups:

a) Employees who are required to travel to meet with customers, partners, and vendors, and who are unable to use their own vehicles for such purposes;
b) Employees who use company vehicles as an indispensable part of their job (such as truck drivers and delivery drivers);
c) Employees who are given a company vehicle as a benefit attached to their job.

The company reserves the right to decide which employees will receive company vehicles and also maintains the authority to withdraw or assign company vehicles as deemed necessary.

3.2. PREREQUISITES TO DRIVE A COMPANY VEHICLE

3.2.1. Employees will only be permitted to drive a company vehicle if they:

a) Have a valid driver's license;
b) Have a clean driving record. This means that they must not have been previously arrested on charges of violating vehicle and/or traffic regulations;
c) Have been granted permission by Executive Management.

3.2.2. Employees will need to complete a form and submit a copy of their valid driver's license before they will be permitted to make use of a company vehicle.

3.3. DRIVER'S OBLIGATIONS

3.3.1. Employees who make use of company vehicles are required to adhere to the following rules and regulations when operating/driving a company vehicle:

3.3.1.1. Company vehicles are to be used for business purposes only, unless otherwise agreed to and authorized by Executive Management.

3.3.1.2. Approval from Executive Management is required for any person other than the assigned driver to make use of the vehicle. No employee may permit another employee to drive the company vehicle.

3.3.1.3. Employees must document and keep record of all driving-related expenses such as fuel and toll fees.

3.3.1.4. If applicable, employees must wear glasses and contact lenses while driving.

3.3.1.5. It is mandatory to drive safely and be completely sober when operating a company vehicle.

3.3.1.6. All company policies relating to operating and driving of company vehicles as well as local traffic laws and regulations must be adhered to by the driver as well as any passenger/s, if applicable.

3.3.1.7. The employee assigned to the company vehicle is responsible for the behaviour and conduct of all individuals in the vehicle.

3.3.1.8. In the event where the driver needs to keep the vehicle overnight, this should be agreed to and authorized by Executive Management and the driver must ensure that the vehicle is parked in a secure location to prevent theft of or from the vehicle, and any damage/s to the vehicle.

3.3.1.9. The company strictly prohibits any form of bribery or corruption, such as bribes and attempts to bribe traffic officers, with disciplinary action for employees who are found guilty of such.

3.3.1.10. Possession of or use of controlled substances, alcohol, or drugs by anyone in or near a company vehicle is strictly prohibited.

3.3.1.11. Operating and driving of company vehicles whilst under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs is strictly prohibited.

3.3.1.12. Seatbelts must be worn at all times by the driver and all passenger/s, if applicable.

3.3.1.13. Smoking of any kind is strictly prohibited in any company vehicle.

3.3.1.14. The consumption of food or beverages is prohibited in any company vehicle.

3.3.1.15. Transportation of hitchhikers or unauthorized passengers is strictly prohibited.

3.3.2. Employees who are found guilty of engaging in any one of the following activities while driving a company vehicle may be subject to disciplinary action:

3.3.2.1. Exhibition of speed and/or racing;

3.3.2.2. Unsafe lane changing;

3.3.2.3. Failure to signal;

3.3.2.4. Reckless and negligent driving;

3.3.2.5. Aggressive driving;

3.3.2.6. Physically and/or verbally threatening other motorists and/or pedestrians;

3.3.2.7. Failure to stop when involved in an accident;

3.3.2.8. Failure to report an accident;
3.3.2.9. "At fault" accidents due to negligence;
3.3.2.10. Using a cell phone while driving;
3.3.2.11. Using a company vehicle for personal use;
3.3.2.12. Violating company policies relating to vehicle use and operations;
3.3.2.13. Disobeying and/or ignoring traffic signals, laws, and regulations;
3.3.2.14. Driving without a valid driver's license;
3.3.2.15. Damage to the company vehicle due to improper or negligent use;
3.3.2.16. Transporting unauthorized passengers;
3.3.2.17. Any other act omitted while driving a company vehicle that is deemed a fair reason for disciplinary action, or which directly violates any part of this policy.

3.4. VEHICLE OPERATIONS

3.4.1. We care about the safety of our employees, and we have thus implemented the following regulations around vehicle operations, and all employees who operate and drive company vehicles are required to comply with these.

3.4.2. Vehicle operations regulations aim to establish clear guidelines for the safe, lawful, and efficient use of company vehicles. These rules ensure the security of vehicles and their occupants, as well as the proper maintenance and management of company assets. Additionally, they promote responsible driving behaviour and compliance with traffic laws, contributing to overall safety and operational effectiveness. Violations of these regulations may result in disciplinary action.

3.4.2.1. Prohibition of unlawful activity: Any unlawful activity is strictly prohibited while within or in the vicinity of a company vehicle. This includes but is not limited to the possession of unlicensed firearms, contraband, or stolen property.

3.4.2.2. Key security: Keys shall not be left in the vehicle while unattended, and duplicate keys should not be stored in hidden locations. If the driver loses or misplaces the keys, the cost of making copies will be the driver's responsibility.

3.4.2.3. Responsibility for personal items: Personal items left in the vehicle are the responsibility of the operator.

3.4.2.4. Safeguarding valuables: Under no circumstances should valuable goods or equipment be left in a vehicle where they are visible from the outside or in any part of the vehicle that cannot be locked, such as under canopy covers.

3.4.2.5. Vehicle safety: Doors must be kept locked when driving to ensure the safety of occupants and property.

3.4.2.6. Locking of vehicles: When a vehicle is left unattended, it is your responsibility to ensure that the vehicle engine is switched off, keys are removed from the ignition, all windows, doors, the boot, and canopy are securely locked. Failure to do so will be considered negligent behaviour.

3.4.2.7. Personal liability: In the unfortunate event of theft from a vehicle, if it is found that an employee did not take reasonable care to safeguard the vehicle and/or equipment, they will be held personally liable for the cost of replacing the stolen and/or damaged equipment. This includes incidents where negligence is evident, such as leaving vehicles unlocked or valuables in plain sight.

3.4.2.8. Vehicle registration and licensing: The assigned driver must notify the company of any lapse in vehicle registrations or licenses.

3.4.2.9. Vehicle maintenance: The assigned driver is obligated to keep the vehicle in a sound operating condition and notify the company of any repairs needed.

3.4.2.10. Monitoring and safety: Company vehicles may be equipped with trackers and/or dashcams for monitoring and safety purposes.

3.4.2.11. Theft and/or damage reporting: Where a company vehicle and/or company asset/s have been stolen or maliciously damaged, the respective driver must report the incident to their line manager immediately, and to the Police, no later than twenty-four (24) hours following the incident.

3.5. DRIVING OF VEHCILES WITH TRAILERS

3.5.1. Driver's license requirements: Employees must possess a valid driver's license that specifically permits the operation of vehicles with trailers. This includes any necessary endorsements or classifications as required by local laws and regulations.

3.5.2. Pre-trip inspection: Before operating a vehicle with a trailer attached, employees must conduct a thorough inspection to ensure the trailer is securely attached and safe to operate. The inspection must include, but is not limited to:

3.5.2.1. Ensuring that all taillights, brake lights, and indicator lights on the trailer are functioning correctly.

3.5.2.2. Verifying that the trailer load is within the permissible weight limit and is evenly distributed.

3.5.2.3. Ensuring that the tires on the trailer are properly inflated and in good condition.

3.5.3. Employees must adhere to all traffic laws and regulations, including those specific to vehicles towing trailers.

3.5.4. Extra caution should be exercised when driving, particularly when making turns, reversing, or driving in adverse weather conditions.

3.5.5. Speed limits and safe following distances must be strictly observed to account for the additional weight and length of the trailer

3.5.6. Employees must ensure that trailers are not overloaded and that all cargo is properly secured to prevent shifting during transit.

3.6. VEHICLE MAINTENANCE AND INSPECTION

3.6.1. Vehicle maintenance and inspection regulations are designed to ensure that company vehicles are properly cared for and maintained by drivers. These rules aim to promote a culture of responsible vehicle use, prevent accidents due to mechanical failures, and uphold the safety and reliability of company assets.

3.6.2. The following guidelines are established to promote responsible vehicle care and maintenance by drivers, ultimately enhancing the safety and longevity of company assets, and must be adhered to by all employees who operate and drive company vehicles:

3.6.2.1. Care for vehicles: Drivers are expected to treat company vehicles with reasonable care as if it were their own vehicle, ensuring that they are in good condition at all times.

3.6.2.2. Regular inspections: Vehicles must be inspected regularly to identify any potential issues or concerns. The company may also, at its own discretion perform inspections on any and all company vehicles as and when the company deems necessary.

3.6.2.3. Safety checks: Employees are prohibited from operating vehicles they consider mechanically unsafe, to ensure the safety of all occupants.

3.6.2.4. Mirrors and attachments: Mirrors should be free of any attachments except those intended for hygiene purposes.

3.6.2.5. Decals and labels: Unauthorized attachment of decals, photographs, labels, or stickers to vehicles is not permitted unless authorized by management or applied by the manufacturer.

3.7. ROAD VIGILANCE AND SAFETY

3.7.1. As part of our commitment to ensuring the safety of our employees and the security of our company vehicles, we emphasize the importance of vigilance and caution while driving. Recent reports highlight increased risks, including spikes and new trends in hijacking along main routes. To mitigate these risks, please adhere to the following guidelines:

3.7.1.1. Stay informed:

- Monitor local news and traffic reports for updates on high-risk areas and current trends in road safety threats.
- Share relevant information with colleagues to keep everyone informed and prepared.

3.7.1.2. Maintain awareness:

- Always be aware of your surroundings. Continuously scan the road and the environment for any unusual or suspicious activity.
- Avoid distractions while driving. Refrain from using mobile phones or engaging in activities that take your attention away from the road.

3.7.1.3. Plan your route:

- Whenever possible, plan your route to avoid known high-risk areas. Use well-lit, busy roads and highways instead of isolated or less-travelled routes.
- Share your travel plans, including your expected route and arrival time, with a colleague or supervisor.

3.7.1.4. Security measures:

- Keep vehicle doors locked and windows rolled up, especially when stopping at traffic lights or in slow-moving traffic.
- Avoid stopping in poorly lit or deserted areas. If you need to stop for any reason, choose well-lit, populated locations.

3.7.1.5. Response to suspicious activity:

- If you notice any suspicious activity, do not stop or confront individuals. Instead, drive to the nearest safe location and report the activity to the authorities and your manager.
- If you suspect that you are being followed, drive to the nearest police station or a busy public area and seek assistance.

3.7.1.6. Emergency procedures

- Familiarize yourself with the company's emergency contact procedures. Ensure you know whom to contact within the company in case of an emergency.
- Keep a fully charged mobile phone with you at all times while driving to ensure you can make emergency calls if necessary.

3.8. TRAFFIC FINES

3.8.1. Adherence to traffic laws and regulations is paramount when operating company vehicles.

3.8.2. Employees are expected to drive responsibly within speed limits and follow all traffic laws and regulations. Any fines resulting from violations are the responsibility of the driver, encouraging accountability and safe driving practices. Prompt reporting of violations is required to uphold transparency and ensure timely resolution of fines, promoting a culture of responsible and lawful driving among employees.

3.8.3. The following guidelines outlines the responsibilities of employees to ensure compliance with traffic laws and regulations:

3.8.3.1. Employees are expected to obey all traffic laws and regulations while driving company vehicles.

3.8.3.2. Employees must not exceed speed limits or disregard basic speed regulations.

3.8.3.3. Any traffic fines resulting from negligent driving or violations of traffic laws will be the responsibility of the driver.

3.8.3.4. In case of any traffic violations or fines related to a company vehicle, the assigned driver must notify their line manager within twenty-four (24) hours. Failure to report violations, such as fines for cracked windows, will result in the employee driver being held personally liable for the fine.

3.9. ACCIDENT REPORTING

3.9.1. Proper reporting and cooperation in the event of an accident involving a company vehicle is essential for ensuring timely resolution and compliance with legal requirements.

3.9.2. This section outlines the procedures and responsibilities for drivers involved in accidents: Any employee who is found guilty of a hit and run accident will be subject to disciplinary action and reported to the relevant authorities. Furthermore, employees are prohibited from independently settling accidents with the other party involved. All accidents must be reported and escalated to management, who will handle the matter according to company procedures. This ensures that the situation is managed appropriately and in compliance with company policies.

3.9.2.1. Employees who are involved in an accident with a company vehicle are required to stop at the scene.

3.9.2.2. Driver's should not admit fault or responsibility. Instead, the incident must be reported immediately to the designated company personnel. The appropriate individuals within the company will handle the situation and determine the necessary course of action.

3.9.2.3. Cooperation with authorities: Drivers must fully cooperate with law enforcement in the event of an accident.

3.9.2.4. Guidelines for accident reporting:

- Obtain the name/s and contact details of all witnesses;
- Gather the necessary information from the other party involved in the accident, including their driver's license and vehicle registration number, contact number;
- Driver's are required to provide photographic evidence of the accident scene.

3.9.2.5. Information to disclose to the other parties:

- Your name and surname;
- Your driver's license number;
- Company name and office contact details for insurance purposes.

3.9.2.6. Internal reporting: The employee involved in the accident is required to contact their line manager immediately following the accident. Failure to report an accident internally is a violation of this policy.

3.9.2.7. Police reporting: Where a company vehicle is involved in an accident, the respective driver must report the incident to the Police no later than twenty-four (24) hours following the incident. Driver's will be required to provide the company with a Police case number, police reporting without submission of a case number, will be considered as not reported.

4. DEVIATION

4.1. Management together with the Human Resources Department must approve all deviations from this policy.

4.2. Deviation/s to this policy may be allowed under the following circumstances:

- Where the applicable law/s or regulations dictate such deviations/s; and
- Where it would be in the interest of the business to deviate from the defined process/es as outlined in this policy.

5. NON-COMPLIANCE

5.1. Non-compliance with this policy will be dealt with in accordance with the company's disciplinary code and procedure.

6. POLICY REVIEW
