COMPANY FUEL CARD ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM 9

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the proper use of company fuel cards issued to staff. It aims to ensure responsible usage, accurate accounting, and to provide protection against misuse or abuse of company fuel cards.

2. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

This policy is applicable to all employees and consultants who are issued a company fuel card for business-related travel, and any groups covered as per relevant labour legislation, regardless of employment agreement or rank, its stakeholders, members of the Board and its sub-committees of the Company. There are no exclusions.

3. REGULATORY FRAMEWORK

This policy is informed by the following legislative frameworks:

3.1. Basic Conditions of Employment Act No. 75 of 1997 (as amended);
3.2. Labour Relations Act No. 66 of 1995;
3.3. Companies Act No. 71 of 2008;
3.4. National Credit Act No. 34 of 2005

4. DEFINITIONS CLAUSE

Definitions on terms and acronyms used throughout this policy.

4.1. "Company" means the employer, On Point On Time Solutions, Aqua Telecoms or the Group or its subsidiaries.
4.2. "Company Fuel Card" means a payment card issued by the company to authorized employees for the sole purpose of purchasing fuel for specific assigned vehicles.
4.3. "Employee" means any natural person employed by the company within the workplace, on a permanent, fixed-term, temporary or secondment basis. Consultants are also bound by this policy and will fall into this category for the purpose of this policy.
4.4. "Authorized employee" means an employee who has been issued a company fuel card and has received prior approval from Senior Management to use it.
4.5. "Fuel Receipt" means a printed document provided by the fuel station detailing the fuel purchase, including date, time, location, and amount of fuel purchased.
4.6. "Senior Management" means the group of individuals at the highest level of organizational management who have the day-to-day responsibilities of managing the company.

4.7. "Unauthorized use" means any use of the company fuel card that does not comply with this policy, including but not limited to personal fuel purchases, non-fuel purchases, and use for vehicles other than the specific assigned vehicle.

4.8. "Vehicle Mileage" means the odometer reading of the company vehicle at the time of refueling, indicating the distance traveled.

4.9. Words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine, and vice versa.

5. ISSUANCE AND AUTHORIZATION

5.1. Issuance of Company Fuel Cards

5.1.1. Company fuel cards will be issued to employees who require them for business-related purposes as determined by Senior Management.

5.1.2. Each fuel card is assigned to a specific vehicle and must only be used for refuelling that specific vehicle.

5.1.3. Employees must sign an acknowledgment form upon receiving the fuel card, confirming their understanding of, and agreement to comply with this policy.

5.2. Authorization

5.2.1. Employees must obtain prior written authorization from Senior Management before each use of the company fuel card.

5.2.2. Fuel cards may not be used without prior authorization.

6. USAGE GUIDELINES

6.1. Permitted Use

6.1.1. The fuel card is strictly for purchasing fuel for the specific assigned vehicle.

6.1.2. Under no circumstances may the fuel card be used for any vehicle other than the specific assigned vehicle and may not be used for non-fuel purchases.

6.1.3. Employees are responsible for ensuring that fuel cards are not lost, stolen, or misused in any way.

6.2. Prohibited Use

6.2.1. Using the fuel card for any vehicle other than the assigned company vehicle is strictly prohibited.

6.2.2. The fuel card must not be used for non-fuel purchases (e.g., snacks, airtime, and/or vehicle maintenance).

6.2.3. Unauthorized use of the fuel card may result in disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment.

6.3. Security and Responsibility

6.3.1. Employees are responsible for the security of the fuel card. It should be stored in a secure location and must not be shared with others.

6.3.2. Lost or stolen fuel cards must be reported to Senior Management immediately. Failure to report a lost or stolen fuel card will result in the deduction of any expenses incurred on the lost or stolen fuel card from the respective employee's remuneration.

7. DOCUMENTATION AND REPORTING

7.1. Fuel Receipts

7.1.1. Employees must obtain a receipt from the fuel station for every fuel purchase made using the company fuel card.

7.1.2. After refuelling, the employee must take a photo of the fuel receipt and send a copy of the photo to the Petty Cash WhatsApp group immediately after the fuel purchase. The employee must retain a copy of the photo as supporting documentation for their bi-weekly report.

7.1.3. Each receipt must include:

- The date and time of the fuel purchase;
- The location (fuel station) of purchase;
- The amount of fuel purchased;
- The vehicle's mileage.

7.1.4. A photo of the vehicle's odometer before refuelling must be submitted along with the fuel receipt. The employee must also retain a copy of the photo as supporting documentation for their bi-weekly reporting.

7.1.5. The Fuel Expenditure Report (Annexure A) must be completed by the employee after each refuel. A photo of the Fuel Expenditure Report must be submitted along with the fuel receipt, and the employee must retain a copy of the photo as supporting documentation for their bi-weekly reporting.

7.2. Bi-Weekly Fuel Expenditure Reporting

7.2.1. Employees must submit a detailed report for their bi-weekly fuel expenditure to the Finance Department and Senior Management by no later than the 15th and month end of each respective month.

7.2.2. This report must be completed by using the Fuel Expenditure Report (Annexure A), and should include:

- Date, time, and location of each fuel purchase;
- Amount of each fuel purchase and the total amount purchased within that month;
- Vehicle mileage at the time of each refuel.

7.2.3. The bi-weekly Fuel Expenditure report must be submitted along with the following supporting documentation:

- All fuel receipts for the reporting period or photos of the fuel receipts if the employee is submitting the report electronically;
- All photos of the vehicle's odometer readings taken before refuelling, for the reporting period;
- A copy of the Fuel Expenditure Report for the respective bi-weekly period.

8. MONITORING AND COMPLIANCE

8.1. Regular Monitoring

8.2. All fuel card transactions, receipts, and fuel expenditure reports will be reviewed by the Finance Department and Senior Management on an ongoing basis.

8.3. These reviews will check for:

- Compliance with this policy;
- Consistency of reported fuel expenses with authorized usage;
- Any discrepancies or unusual patterns.

9. VIOLATIONS AND CONSEQUENCES

9.1. Consequences of misuse

9.1.1. Use of company fuel cards that are in violation of this policy (including unauthorized use, non-fuel related purchases, or use of the fuel card for a vehicle other than the specific assigned vehicle) may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

9.1.2. If an employee is found guilty of violating this policy, the employee will be liable for reimbursing the company the full amount of the unauthorized and/or prohibited purchase.

9.1.3. Unauthorized use of company fuel cards may also result in the suspension of fuel card privileges.

9.2. Reporting Violations

9.2.1. Employees who suspect misuse or abuse of a company fuel card must report it immediately to Senior Management and the Finance Department.

9.2.2. The company commits to safeguarding employees who report suspected misuse or abuse by safeguarding their identity.

10. DEVIATION

10.1. Management together with the Human Resources Department must approve all deviations from this policy.

10.2. Deviation/s to this policy may be allowed under the following circumstances:

- Where the applicable law/s or regulations dictate such deviations/s; and
- Where it would be in the interest of the business to deviate from the defined process/es as outlined in this policy.

11. REVIEW AND AMENDMENTS

11.1. This policy will be reviewed annually by Senior Management and the Finance Department.

11.2. Any amendments to the policy will be communicated to all employees in writing.

12. SIGNATURE, TITLE AND DATE OF APPROVAL

This policy needs to be signed by the appropriate officer (listed below) before it is considered approved.
